COMPREHENSIVE HISTORY

The R129 series SL were produced from 1989 until 2001. Within that period the 300SL-24 models were only produced between 1989 through to 1993, so a relatively short term within the R129 production series. This example was registered in August 1992, and is finished in Pearl blue metallic paint (348) complemented by contrasting mushroom leather interior. With only 4 previous owners the car has covered 46k miles whilst retaining a full Mercedes-Benz service history throughout its 28 years of life. Previously supplied to its most recent by ourselves in 2018 we are very pleased to offer this car again for sale. With the original Blaupunkt Canberra radio/cassette player adding to the cars originality, the car has the additional specification of drivers' airbag, air conditioning, electrically adjustable seats and 8 hole 16" alloys wheels. Supplied of course with its original removable hard top and extensive history file, service booklet and book pack this 300SL-24 presents and drives superb...
